Remember that accuracy in spelling and punctuation will be taken into account.
Use the given number to identify a piece of work - the name of the school or the pupil MUST NOT appear on the script.

Class 38 - Primary 1

Apple apple
if you fall,
I will eat you skin and all.

Class 39 - Primary 2

This is the story
of a piece of wood,
which was turned into a real little boy.
Pinocchio.

Class 40 - Primary 3

Perfect Peter had had enough.
Why oh why did he always fall
for Henry's tricks?
Every time it happened he swore
Henry would never ever trick him again.

Class 41 - Primary 4

It's a funny thing about parents, most think their child has qualities of genius!
Occasionally one comes across parents who think the opposite.
Matilda's parents looked upon her as nothing more than a "scab."
